

City of Boston IN CITY COUNCIL

COUNCILLORS CHARLES C. YANCEY AND CHUCK TURNER

BEULAH FAGAN PROVIDENCE

- WHEREAS: Beulah Fagan Providence, Executive Director of the Caribbean Foundation of Boston for over four decades, has been leading a team of home aid workers to improve and protect the lives of residents in our community; and
- WHEREAS: Beulah Fagan Providence, a native of Dominica, continues to draw inspiration from Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s dream and commitment to improving the quality of life for all people; and
- WHEREAS: Despite limited formal education, Beulah began crafting the Caribbean Foundation's structure during a class project at Northeastern University; and
- WHEREAS: After witnessing the disparity between the quality and training of homemakers working in upper middle class suburbia and that in more urban and poorer areas in Roxbury, Dorchester and Mattapan, Beulah sought to find jobs and pool resources to aid the Greater Boston Caribbean immigrant community; and
- WHEREAS: Despite leaving the beautiful island of Dominica to come to Boston to pursue an education and a better lifestyle, Beulah has never forgotten her island and travels back often; and
- WHEREAS: In 2006, Beulah traveled back to Dominica and revived the much needed Breast Cancer Society. After years of being dormant the society is now active and prospering; and
- WHEREAS: Beulah has continued to make her life speak louder than her lips; and Be it Further
- RESOLVED: That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, congratulates Beulah Fagan Providence for her outstanding work as Executive Director of the Caribbean Foundation of Boston.

By:
President of the City Council

Attest:
Clerk of the City of Boston

Offered by:

Date: November 17, 2010